

Hugh F. Dailey
President and Chief Executive Officer
Community Bank & Trust of Florida
Florida Community Bankshares, Inc.

Hugh F. Dailey has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Community Bank & Trust of Florida and Florida Community Bankshares, Inc. in Ocala, Florida since 1997. Community Bank & Trust of Florida currently operates eight offices in Marion, Sumter and Alachua counties and has grown to over $540 million in total assets. In 2004, Community Bank & Trust was granted trust powers and currently manages over $160 million in additional assets. Previously, Mr. Dailey served as Senior Vice President of Agricultural Lending for SunTrust Bank, North Central Florida from 1984 to 1997. Mr. Dailey is a member of the Board of Directors of the Jacksonville Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. He also serves as a director of the Independent Community Bankers Association and is currently Vice Chairman of their Tax Committee. He has held numerous positions with the Florida Bankers Association including President of the Leadership Division, Chairman of the Educational Foundation, State Director and board member for Bankserv and the 2009 Annual Convention Chairman. His current and past affiliations include director of Ocala/Marion County Economic Development Council and the Ocala/Marion County Chamber of Commerce, director, Marion County Cattlemen's Association, a sponsor of Habitat for Humanity and director of the Southeastern Youth Fair.

He received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Florida, and is a graduate of Clemson University's Southeastern Agricultural Lending School, the University of Florida's School of Banking, the Louisiana State University Graduate School of Banking of the South, Louisiana State University/Sheshunoff Professional Masters of Banking Program and the Florida Trust School, Florida Bankers Association. He received the Chairman's Horizon Award, Florida Banker's Association in 2007.